Report of Funded and Unfunded Projects

Funding Information

Past

- 1994-1996 Memory Biases in Obsessive Compulsive Disorder
German Academic Exchange Service
PI ($12,935)
The goal of this dissertation fellowship awarded by the German government was to assess various memory biases in OCD.
- 1997-1998 Efficacy of Habit Reversal for Tourette's Disorder
Tourette Syndrome Association
PI ($24,405)
The major goal of this project was to evaluate the efficacy of a behavioral treatment for tic reduction in adolescents and adults with Tourette's disorder.
- 1998-1999 Development and Testing of the Symptom-Specific Obsessive Compulsive Disorder Rating Scale
Obsessive Compulsive Foundation
PI ($9,940)
The major goal of this project was to develop a new rating scale for OCD.
- 2001-2007 Treatment and Psychopathology of Body Dysmorphic Disorder
Interventions for Body Dysmorphic Disorder
National Institute of Mental Health
Consultant (Phillips, PI)
The goal of Dr. Phillips' grant was to assess the psychopathology of body dysmorphic disorder and for Dr. Phillips to learn how to conduct cognitive behavioral therapy. I trained Dr. Phillips in the administration of cognitive behavioral therapy.
- 2002-2005 Cognitive Therapy in Obsessive Compulsive Disorder
National Institute of Mental Health, R21MH058804
PI ($300,000)
The goal of this grant was to develop and assess a new cognitive treatment for OCD.
- 2003-2004 Generalization of Therapeutic Changes in Obsessive Compulsive Disorder
Claflin Award
MGH/Harvard Medical School
PI ($60,000)
The major goal of this project was to conduct an OCD treatment study and to assess improvement in untreated areas.
- 2003-2004 Multisite Study of CBT Treatment Failures in Obsessive Compulsive Disorder
Obsessive Compulsive Foundation
PI ($30,000)
The major goal of this study was to conduct a mega-analysis of existing data from eight sites that had completed treatment studies in OCD to determine the overall effects of cognitive therapy versus behavior therapy and to examine predictors of outcome.
- 2003-2009 The Experience of Mental Control
National Science Foundation
Consultant (Wegner, PI)

- The goal of Dr. Wegner's grant was to assess the influence of thought suppression on OCD patients. I consulted on an experiment with OCD patients that assessed thought control.
- 2004-2008 Cognitive Behavior Therapy Treatment Development for Body Dysmorphic Disorder
National Institute of Mental Health, R34MH070490
PI ($401,202)
The purpose of this study was to develop a flexible modular cognitive behavioral treatment for patients suffering from BDD. Efficacy of the developed treatment was tested against a wait-list control.
- 2004-2009 Behavior Therapy for Children with Chronic Tic Disorders
Tourette Syndrome Association and NIH, R01MH070802
MGH site PI ($57,647)
The major goal of this multisite project was to evaluate the efficacy of a manualized habit reversal training program for tic reduction in children with chronic tic disorders.
- 2005-2012 Pharmacotherapy Relapse Prevention in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
National Institute of Mental Health, R01MH072854
PI ($864,997)
The primary aim of this study was to compare time to relapse and relapse rates in responders to acute escitalopram treatment who are then randomized to placebo versus continuation treatment with escitalopram.
- 2006-2007 Neural Correlates of Behavior Therapy in Tourette's Syndrome
Tourette Syndrome Association
Co-PI (Deckersbach, PI) ($61,200)
The goal of this study was to investigate the functional neurobiology associated with changes in tic severity pre- and post- habit reversal training using fMRI.
- 2006-2009 Stepped Care for Obsessive Compulsive Disorder
National Institute of Mental Health, R34MH071464
DSMB Member (Tolin, PI)
The goal of this study was to explore cost-efficacy and accessibility of various forms of cognitive behavior therapy for OCD patients ages 18-65. My role was to oversee the safety of research participants.
- 2006-2009 Fluoxetine in Pediatric Body Dysmorphic Disorder
Food and Drug Administration, FD-R-002613
MGH site PI ($101,047), (Hollander, PI)
- 2006-2011 Behavior Therapy for Adults with Tourette Syndrome
National Institute of Mental Health, R01MH069877
PI ($562,147)
The purpose of this multisite study was to compare the efficacy of a structured habit reversal training protocol to enhanced supportive psychotherapy in adults with Tourette syndrome.
The goal of this study was to conduct a double-blind placebo-controlled trial of fluoxetine for the treatment of BDD in children and adolescents.
- 2008-2010 Facial Processing in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
German Research Society, BU 1814/7-1
Consultant (Buhlmann, PI)

The purpose of this study was to investigate information-processing biases, fear conditioning, and emotion recognition deficits in individuals with body dysmorphic disorder.

- 2009-2014 Visual Attention Bias in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
International Obsessive Compulsive Disorder Foundation
Co-PI/Mentor (Greenberg, PI) ($34,644)
The purpose of this study was to investigate visual attention bias in patients with BDD and healthy controls and to examine whether attention bias improves after treatment with behavior therapy. I was mentoring Dr. Greenberg on this grant.
- 2009-2015 Body Dysmorphic Disorder by Proxy
Private Donor
PI ($150,000)
The purpose of this project was to investigate the psychopathology of BDD by Proxy.
- 2010-2013 Facial Processing in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
German Research Society, BU 1814/7-2
Consultant (Buhlmann, PI)
The purpose of this study was to further investigate information-processing biases and fear conditioning in individuals with BDD as well as OCD and social phobia.
- 2010-2013 Treatment of Tourette's Disorder
Private Donor
PI ($25,000)
The major goal of this project was to conduct research on the behavioral treatment of Tourette's Disorder.
- 2011-2015 Cognitive Behavior Therapy for Body Dysmorphic Disorder by Proxy
Private Donor
PI ($78,500)
The purpose of this study was to investigate the psychopathology of BDD by Proxy and to develop and pilot test a cognitive behavioral therapy for adults with BDD by Proxy.
- 2011-2017 CBT versus Supportive Psychotherapy for BDD
National Institute of Mental Health, R01MH091078
PI ($1,157,062)
The purpose of this study was to examine the efficacy of a manualized CBT treatment in comparison to manualized enhanced supportive psychotherapy (SPT) for adult BDD.
- 2011-2016 2/2-D-Cycloserine Augmentation of CBT for Pediatric OCD
NIH/National Institute of Mental Health, R01MH093402
Co-Investigator (Geller, PI)
Using a partial glutamate agonist (d-cycloserine) to augment fear extinction effects of cognitive behavioral therapy applied to children and adolescents with OCD to accelerate and improve their response.
- 2013-2014 Novartis Protocol NoAFQ056A2225
Novartis
Co-Investigator (Fava, PI)
A randomized, double-blind, placebo-controlled, parallel-group proof of concept study to evaluate the effect of AFQ056 in obsessive compulsive disorder (OCD) patients resistant to Selective Serotonin Reuptake Inhibitor (SSRI) therapy.

- 2013-2015 Clinical Decision Making and Suicide Risk: Biases Among Mental Health Professionals
Mind Brain Behavior Interfaculty Initiative
Co-PI/Mentor (Berman and Cohen, Co-PI)
The purpose of this study was to (1) examine the biases that underlie mental health professionals' evaluation of suicide risk and (2) modify the identified biases of clinicians. I was mentoring Dr. Berman on this grant.
- 2013-2016 Risk and Resilience Factors Associated with Cognitive Biases in the Offspring of Parents with OCD
Livingston Fellowship, Harvard Medical School
Co-PI/Mentor (Berman, PI)
The purpose of this study was to examine theoretically grounded risk and resilience factors for the development of cognitive biases in the offspring of a parent with OCD. I was mentoring Dr. Berman on this grant.
- 2014-2017 3/3 Dose Timing of D-cycloserine to Augment CBT for Social Anxiety Disorder
National Institute of Mental Health, R34MH099318
DSMB Chair (Smits, PI)
The objective of this study was to determine whether the efficacy of d-cycloserine for augmenting exposure therapy for social anxiety disorder depends on the timing of the administration and session success.
- 2014-2018 An Investigation of Oxytocin as a Biomarker of Social and Cognitive Impairments in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
Mind Brain Behavior Interfaculty Initiative
Co-PI/Mentor (Fang and Lawson, Co-PI)
This study examined the relationship between plasma oxytocin and performance on tasks measuring social perception and trust, among individuals with BDD compared to healthy controls.
- 2014-2023 BDD Research Fund
Anna and Neil Rasmussen Foundation
PI ($1,700,000)
The goal was to conduct multiple studies on the psychopathology and treatment of BDD.
- 2014-2021 Neural Mechanisms of Behavior Therapy for OCD and Related Disorders
Private Donor
PI ($933,019)
The purpose of this study was to examine mechanisms of change underlying cognitive-behavioral therapy (CBT) in obsessive compulsive disorder (OCD).
- 2014-2021 Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation: A Randomized Clinical Trial
Private Donor
Co-Investigator (Camprodon, PI)
This study investigated the clinical efficacy and safety of neuronavigated TMS for OCD, in addition to assessing the mechanism of action of this intervention and evaluating biomarkers using neuroimaging, neurophysiology and behavioral methods.
- 2016-2019 Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy for Avoidant/Restrictive Food Intake Disorder (ARFID)
Hilda and Preston Davis Foundation
Consultant (Thomas and Eddy, Co-PIs)

This proposal provides also supports the manualization and testing of ARFID treatment efficacy in reducing symptoms and maintaining mechanisms in a case series of 10 patients, including evaluating the impact of the treatment on neuroendocrine hormones.

- 2017-2020 Online Mindfulness-based Tic Reduction: Development and Testing
Bowdoin College
Co-Investigator (Reese, PI)
This study examined the efficacy of an online mindfulness-based intervention for adults with Tourette Syndrome or Persistent Tic Disorder, with the goal of determining whether Online Mindfulness-based Tic Reduction resulted in significantly greater improvements in tic severity and tic-related impairment than online psychoeducation, relaxation, and supportive therapy.
- 2017-2022 Development of a cognitive behavioral mobile app for body dysmorphic disorder, and tests of feasibility, acceptability, and preliminary efficacy
Koa Health
PI ($1,882,958)
The purpose of this study was to develop and pilot test a CBT app for BDD.
- 2018-2023 Development of a Smartphone CBT App for Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD)
Private Donor
PI ($630,434)
This project aims to develop and pilot-test the feasibility, acceptability, and efficacy of a CBT mobile app treatment for OCD.
- 2019-2023 Development of a Mobile App-Based CBT Treatment for Social Anxiety Disorder (SAD)
Koa Health
PI ($1,070,456)
This project aims to develop and pilot-test the feasibility, acceptability, and efficacy of a CBT mobile app treatment for SAD.
- 2019-2024 Development of a Mobile App-Based CBT Treatment for Major Depressive Disorder (MDD)
Koa Health
PI ($1,284,735)
This project aims to develop and pilot-test the feasibility, acceptability, and efficacy of a CBT mobile app treatment for MDD.
- 2021-2021 Review of Koa Foundations
Koa Health
PI ($24,300)
This project aims to evaluate the Foundations app (version 05/2020) by reviewing its programs and modules, gathering feedback from members of the OCD and Related Disorders Program through surveys, and compiling a comprehensive review report led by two psychologists.
- 2020-2025 Development and preliminary testing of a non-regulated digital service that supports cognitive behavioral therapy for depressive symptoms under clinical supervision.
Koa Health
PI ($420,903)

This project aims to develop and pilot-test the feasibility, acceptability, and efficacy of an app based cognitive behavioral treatment plus a brief video based treatment for depression.

2020-2025 Development of a Smartphone CBT App for Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD)

Koa Health

PI ($2,170,966)

The major goals of this study are to develop and pilot-test the feasibility, acceptability, and efficacy of a CBT mobile app treatment for OCD.

2022-2025 Transcranial Direct Current Stimulation potentiation of fear extinction in OCD: towards rational design of combination therapies

The Foundation for OCD Research (FFOR)

PI ($600,000)

This project aims to investigate whether inhibitory tDCS to the pre-SMA before, during or after fear extinction (which captures the core mechanism of action of CBT15-18) significantly enhances 1) the recall of extinction learning and 2) fronto-medial theta power during extinction recall.

2023-2025 Smartphone Delivered Cognitive Behavior Therapy for Adults with Psoriasis and Comorbid Depression Symptoms

Brigham and Women's Hospital, Inc.

PI ($30,887)

The major goals of this project are to demonstrate the feasibility, acceptability, and preliminary efficacy of using coach-guided, smartphone-delivered cognitive behavioral therapy to treat depression and psoriasis symptoms in participants with psoriasis.

Current

2008-2029 OCD Research Fund

Private Donor

PI ($10,101,250)

The goal is to conduct multiple studies on the psychopathology and treatment of OCD and OCD spectrum disorders.

2018-2061 Lee Baer, PhD fund for OCD Research and Teaching

The Chirag Foundation

PI ($525,000)

The goal is to advance the knowledge and treatment of OCD through the understanding of the causes, neurobiological mechanisms and clinical manifestations by funding multiple research projects as well as supporting research staff.

2020-2063 Hope Fund

Private Donor

PI ($1,000,000)

The goal is to conduct multiple studies on the psychopathology and treatment of OCD and OCD spectrum disorders.

2022-2065 Jill and Niraj Shah Catalyst Fund for Scalable Mental Health Solutions

Shah Family Foundation

PI ($1,300,000)

This project aims to provide resources for scalable mental health interventions for vulnerable communities with the goal of addressing the adolescent mental health crisis in K-12 education.

- 2023-2028 Neural Markers of Treatment Mechanisms and Prediction of Treatment Outcomes in Social Anxiety
National Institute of Mental Health, 5R01MH128377
DSMB Member (Rosellini, PI)
The goal of this study is to examine whether neuroimaging can offer an evidence-based precision or personalized medicine approach to predict treatment in patients with social anxiety, and to apply advanced computational and multimodal imaging approaches to improve our understanding of the neurobiology of social anxiety disorder, and brain changes (plasticity) associated with treatment response. My role is to oversee the safety of research participants.
- 2025-2035 Langford Family Research Fund
Private Donor
PI ($250,000)
The goal is to develop an AI tool that trains mental health professionals to treat Body Dysmorphic Disorder.
- 2025-2035 Center for Digital Mental Health
Private Donor
PI ($1,000,000)
The goal is to provide resources for the development and treatment of scalable digital tools that support the assessment and treatment of psychiatric disorders.

Training Grants and Mentored Trainee Grants

- 1999-2000 Executive Functioning in Obsessive Compulsive Disorder and Trichotillomania
German Exchange Service
Mentor (Bohne, PI)
The purpose of this grant was to compare OCD and trichotillomania on various neuropsychological tasks. I mentored Dr. Bohne on this dissertation grant.
- 1999-2001 Information-Processing Biases in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
Daimler-Benz-Foundation
Dissertation Fellowship
Mentor (Buhlmann, PI)
The purpose of this study was to investigate information-processing biases such as selective attention, interpretation, and emotion recognition in individuals with body dysmorphic disorder. I mentored Dr. Buhlmann on this dissertation grant.
- 2000-2002 Habit Reversal for Tourette's Disorder- Multimodal Assessment of Change
Tourette Syndrome Association
Mentor (Deckersbach, PI)
The goal of Dr. Deckersbach's grant was to assess various domains of change after habit reversal treatment for patients with tic disorders. I mentored Dr. Deckersbach on this grant.
- 2000-2001 Habit Reversal for Tic-like Compulsions in OCD
Obsessive Compulsive Foundation
Mentor (Deckersbach, PI)
The major goal of this project was to explore the efficacy of habit reversal for tic-like compulsions in patients with OCD. I mentored Dr. Deckersbach on this grant.
- 2001-2001 Memory in OCD and Trichotillomania

- Philipps-Universität Marburg, Germany
Stipendium zur Förderung für Nachwuchswissenschaftler (Grant for the Advancement of Young Investigators)
Mentor (Bohne, PI)
The purpose of this grant was to compare memory deficits in OCD and trichotillomania. I mentored Dr. Bohne on this project.
- 2006-2008 Critical Sessions and Sudden Gains with Cognitive Therapy in OCD: Identifying Mechanisms of Change
Obsessive Compulsive Foundation
Mentor (Fama, PI)
The goal of this project was to evaluate mechanisms of change in cognitive therapy. I mentored Dr. Fama on this grant.
- 2007-2010 Body Dysmorphic Disorder: Clinical and Neurobiological Features
National Institute of Mental Health, K23 MH079212
Consultant/Mentor (Feusner, PI)
The purpose of this grant was to conduct various studies investigating the neurobiology of BDD. I mentored Dr. Feusner on this grant.
- 2007-2012 Interpersonal Psychotherapy for BDD
National Institute of Mental Health, K23 MH076934-01A2
Co-Mentor (Didie, PI)
The major goal of this project was to develop and pilot test a manualized IPT treatment for BDD. I mentored Dr. Didie on this grant.
- 2011-2013 Nicotine/cigarette smoking in Obsessive Compulsive Disorder: prevalence and impact on brain activity and disorder specific symptomatology.
Rothschild Post-Doctoral Fellowship - Yad-Hanadiv Foundation
Mentor (Abramovitch, PI)
The purpose of this study was to examine the neurobiology and clinical manifestations of reward mechanisms in Obsessive Compulsive Disorder and their association with cigarette smoking and OCD symptomatology. I mentored Dr. Abramovitch on this grant.
- 2011-2013 Mindfulness-based Stress Reduction for Tourette Syndrome and Chronic Tic Disorder: A Pilot Study
International Obsessive Compulsive Disorder Foundation
Mentor (Reese, PI)
The purpose of this study was to develop and test a modified form of Mindfulness-based Stress Reduction (MBSR-tics) for the treatment of Tourette Syndrome and Chronic Tic Disorder. I mentored Dr. Reese on this grant.
- 2011-2013 Anorexia Nervosa and Body Dysmorphic Disorder: A Comparison of Psychopathological Mechanisms
Swiss National Science Foundation
Mentor (Hartmann, PI)
The purpose of the study was to investigate the similarities between the two disorders in various neurocognitive tasks and to experimentally test strategies to deal with intrusive appearance-related thoughts. I mentored Dr. Hartmann on this grant.
- 2009-2014 Translational Phenomics and Genomics of Gilles de la Tourette Syndrome
National Institute of Mental Health, K23 MH085057-01A1
Co-Mentor (Scharf, PI)

- The purpose of this Mentored Career Development Award in Patient-Oriented Research (K23) was to train Dr. Scharf in statistical, genetic, and clinical methods. My specific role was to train him in clinical research.
- 2010-2014 Attentional Processes in Scrupulous OCD
International Obsessive Compulsive Disorder Foundation
Mentor (Siev, PI)
The purpose of this study was to examine the psychopathology of scrupulosity with a particular focus on attention bias and response inhibition, and to evaluate the effect of a pilot, experimental attention training session with individuals who have scrupulous OCD. I was mentoring Dr. Siev on this grant.
- 2013-2014 Examining anxiety sensitivity as a mediator between symptom severity and suicidality in anxiety and OC spectrum disorders as compared to healthy controls
Livingston Fellowship, Harvard Medical School
Mentor (Calkins, PI)
The purpose of this study was to investigate the mediating role of anxiety sensitivity between symptom severity and implicit and explicit suicidality in patients with anxiety and OC spectrum disorders using an experimental paradigm. I was mentoring Dr. Calkins on this grant.
- 2012-2015 Perceptual distortions in Body Dysmorphic and related disorders
Fonds de Recherche du Québec – Santé (FRQS)
Mentor (Elliott, PI)
The purpose of this study was to examine attention biases, perceptual distortions and organizational strategies in BDD, OCD, and social phobia. I was mentoring Dr. Elliott on this grant.
- 2013-2015 Shame as a risk factor for severe and costly outcomes in body dysmorphic disorder
National Institute of Mental Health, 1F31MH100845-01A1
Co-Sponsor (Weingarden, PI)
The primary aim of this study was to investigate shame as a risk factor accounting for the more severe negative outcomes (i.e., occupational impairment, social impairment, depression, suicidality) observed in body dysmorphic disorder compared to healthy control individuals and individuals with obsessive compulsive disorder.
- 2014-2015 Biological and Environmental Risk Factors Associated with Children and Adolescents Who Hoard
Livingston Fellowship, Harvard Medical School
Mentor (Park, PI)
The purpose of this study was to identify possible risk factors associated with pathological hoarding behaviors in youth by examining neuropsychological functioning and presence of trauma and trauma-related symptoms.
- 2014-2016 Differential effects of positive and negative mood on OCD treatment response
Charles A. King Trust Postdoctoral Fellowship
Mentor (Berman, PI)
Evaluate how a positive mood affects threat perception and habituation processes in adults with OCD.
- 2014-2016 Effect of depression on exposure response in OCD: Mechanisms underlying threat perception and habituation
Kaplan Fellowship on Depression
Mentor (Berman, PI)

- The purpose of this study was to examine how depressed mood affects (1) the perception of OCD-related threat and (2) subjective and objective measures of habituation processes in response to feared stimuli in individuals with OCD.
- 2013-2017 Cognitive Biases in OCD: Mechanisms of Generational Transmission
International OCD Foundation
Mentor (Berman, PI)
The primary purpose of this study was to examine how OCD-related information processing styles (e.g., attention and interpretation biases) are generationally transmitted from parent to child.
- 2011-2017 Nutrition, Exercise, and Wellness Treatment ("NEW Tx") for Bipolar Disorder
National Institute of Mental Health K23MH091182
Co-Mentor (Sylvia, PI)
The purpose of this Mentored Career Development Award in Patient-Oriented Research (K23) was to develop and test a psychosocial treatment to improve physical and mental health outcomes in individuals with bipolar disorder. My specific role was to train Dr. Sylvia on designing and implementing a new psychosocial treatment and conducting clinical trials.
- 2012-2017 Body image and self-care in HIV-infected MSM
National Institute of Mental Health, K23MH096647-01A1
Co-Mentor (Blashill, PI)
The primary aim of this study was to develop and test a cognitive behavioral intervention for body dissatisfaction, depression, and self-care behaviors among HIV-infected gay and bisexual men. I mentored Dr. Blashill on this grant.
- 2014-2018 Effect of Intranasal Oxytocin on Social Cognition in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
International OCD Foundation
Mentor (Fang, PI)
This study examined the effect of intranasal oxytocin on social cognition in individuals with body dysmorphic disorder, obsessive-compulsive disorder, and healthy individuals.
- 2017-2019 Modified Comprehensive Behavioral Intervention for Tics: Treating Children with Tic Disorders, Co-occurring ADHD and Psychosocial Impairment
Elaine Schlosser Lewis Fund, American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry
Mentor (Greenberg, PI)
To provide additional funding support for the Modified CBIT project – a treatment protocol and development study designed to evaluate whether the modified treatment can help improve tics, ADHD, and quality of life symptoms.
- 2016-2019 Modified Comprehensive Behavioral Intervention for Tics: Treating Children with Tic Disorders, Co-occurring ADHD and Psychosocial Impairment
President and Fellows of Harvard College, Harvard Medical School Livingston Award and Dupont Warren Award
Mentor (Greenberg, PI)
To develop a treatment protocol that modifies CBIT (comprehensive behavioral intervention for tics) to make it more accessible to those with comorbid ADHD, and then with preliminary measures evaluate whether the modified treatment helps improve tics, ADHD, and quality of life symptoms (as current CBIT does not target ADHD or quality of life, difficulties often faced by those with Tourette syndrome/tic disorders).
- 2018-2020 A Virtual Reality Study of Cognitive Biases in Body Dysmorphic Disorder

- International OCD Foundation
Mentor (Summers, PI)
This study aimed to test the utility of virtual reality technology as a novel, in vivo means of assessing cognitive biases and related threat processes in individuals with BDD (relative to non-psychiatric controls).
- 2019-2020 A Virtual Reality Study of Cognitive Biases in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
Livingston Fellowship Award
Mentor (Summers, PI)
The Livingston Fellowship provides additional funding for the virtual reality cognitive bias assessment study for individuals with BDD (e.g., funds toward computer equipment, lab supplies, participant parking reimbursement, and research assistant salary support). Further, this award offered funds to contribute to Dr. Summers' training in biometric data collection and analysis, as well as travel funds to disseminate study findings at conferences.
- 2019-2020 A Virtual Reality Study of Cognitive Biases in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
Foundations of Human Behavior Initiative
Mentor (Summers, PI)
The FHB award provided additional funding towards the virtual reality cognitive bias assessment study for individuals with BDD.
- 2016-2022 Brain Correlates of Self-Focused Processing as a Biomarker of Treatment Response
National Institute of Mental Health, 1K23MH109593
Mentor (Fang, PI)
This study examined maladaptive self-focused processing and its neural correlates as a biomarker of treatment response, with the goal of identifying promising candidates for treatment and using baseline neuroimaging data to aid in individual treatment planning decisions.
- 2017-2021 Risk and Protective Factors for Body Image Distress following Bilateral Mastectomy with Breast Reconstruction
President and Fellows of Harvard College, Harvard Medical School Kaplen Fellowship on Depression
Mentor (Weingarden, PI)
This project investigated pre-surgery risk and protective factors that predict post-surgery levels of depression and body image distress in women undergoing bilateral mastectomy with breast reconstruction.
- 2017-2021 Risk and Protective Factors for Body Image Distress following Bilateral Mastectomy with Breast Reconstruction
President and Fellows of Harvard College, Harvard Medical School Livingston Award
Mentor (Weingarden, PI)
This project investigated pre-surgery risk and protective factors that predict post-surgery levels of depression and body image distress in women undergoing bilateral mastectomy with breast reconstruction.
- 2017-2020 Decision-making Impairments in OCD: An Integrated Behavioral Economics Model
International OCD Foundation
Mentor (Jacoby, PI)
This project examined whether patients with OCD (relative to non-psychiatric controls) will devalue (i.e., avoid) decisional options that entail ambiguity (relative to those only involving risk) using a series of economic decision-making tasks

- 2017-2020 The Role of Cognitive Control in the Transdiagnostic Conceptualization of "Intrusive Thoughts"
Charles A. King Trust Postdoctoral Fellowship
Mentor (Jacoby, PI)
The purpose of this study was to investigate whether cognitive control (i.e., response inhibition, set shifting) is a transdiagnostic mechanism of action underlying three patterns of intrusive thinking (i.e., obsessions, worries, and ruminations).
- 2018-2020 Cognitive Control as a Transdiagnostic Neurocognitive Process in Repetitive Negative Thinking
Harvard Medical School Department of Psychiatry Livingston Fellowship Award
Mentor (Jacoby PI)
Provided additional funds for the aforementioned study on cognitive control to obtain formalized training in biometric research (via the iMotions Academy Certification Course), purchase electrocardiogram (ECG) equipment for the purposes of collecting and analyzing heart-rate variability (HRV) data, and participant payment.
- 2018-2020 Perseverative Thinking: Examining Deficits of Cognitive and Attentional Control Across Psychological Disorders
Harvard University Foundations of Human Behavior Initiative
Mentor (Jacoby PI)
Provided additional funds for the aforementioned study on cognitive control to fund a research assistant.
- 2018-2020 Economic decision-making impairments in OCD: Elucidating psychosocial moderators, underlying mechanisms, and implications for the treatment of mental illness
Harvard University Mind Brain Behavior Post-Doctoral Fellow Award
Mentor (Jacoby PI)
Provided additional supplies funds for the aforementioned study on decision making in OCD to provide participants with meaningful financial incentives for effective performance on the economic decision-making task.
- 2019-2024 Smartphone-based Digital Phenotyping to Detect High-Risk Affect States in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
National Institute of Mental Health, K23 MH119372
Mentor (Weingarden, PI)
This project uses smartphone-based digital phenotyping to develop and validate unobtrusive, time-sensitive, and ecologically valid measures of negative affect states in BDD. This project also examines passive smartphone measures of negative affect states as predictors of subsequent suicidal thoughts and substance misuse in BDD.
- 2020-2025 Targeting Attentional and Cognitive Control to Enhance the Transdiagnostic Treatment of Repetitive Negative Thinking
National Institute of Mental Health, K23 MH120351
Mentor (Jacoby, PI)
Assesses the role of attentional/cognitive control as a target mechanism in a transdiagnostic treatment for adults with repetitive negative thinking – mental rituals as seen in obsessive compulsive disorder (OCD), worries as seen in generalized anxiety disorder (GAD), and ruminations as seen in major depressive disorder (MDD).

- 2021-2026 Interpretation Bias as a Mechanism of Treatment Response in OCD
National Institute of Mental Health, K23 MH126193
Mentor (Falkenstein, PI)
This career development award examines whether cognitive bias modification for interpretation bias (CBM-I) induces changes in its target in OCD (interpretation bias) and investigates if these changes are associated with clinical outcomes. Additionally, the project will leverage advances in machine learning to develop personalized predictions of which individuals may best respond to CBM-I.
- 2023-2025 Development and Testing of a Smartphone-based Intervention for Comorbid Substance Use and Depression
MGH K12 Career Development Program in Substance Use and Addiction Medicine/National Institute of Drug Abuse
Mentor (Jonathan, PI)
This proposal's preliminary goal is to develop and test Mindset Dual Recovery (MDR), a clinician-guided smartphone intervention for comorbid major depressive and substance use disorders. The project will first examine feasibility, acceptability, and clinical utility of MDR, then examine the effects of MDR on depression, substance use, quality of life, and functional impairment.
- 2023-2025 Anxiety in Youth with Autism Spectrum Disorder
National Institute of Mental Health, K99 MH135180
Mentor (Thom, PI)
To identify autonomic nervous system (ANS) measures that can be obtained in youth with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) which correlate with anxiety severity.
- 2024-2029 A Randomized Controlled Trial of A Smartphone Delivered Treatment for Suicidal Thoughts and Behavior
National Institute of Mental Health, K23MH133876
Mentor (Jaroszewski, PI)
This K23 project follows an experimental therapeutic approach to determine whether increasing suicide-aversion (making suicide seem worse) decreases suicidal thoughts and behavior (STB).
- 2025-2029 Designing and evaluating a Single-session Transdiagnostic intervention for Emotion Regulation with follow-up mHealth support for domestic violence survivors in India.
National Institute of Mental Health, K23 MH135211
Mentor (Patel, PI)
This proposal aims to develop and test a novel low-intensity psychosocial intervention delivered to domestic violence survivors in primary health clinics in Goa, India, by non-specialists through task-sharing—a critical strategy that successfully addresses treatment gaps for mental health in many low -and-middle-income countries.
- 2025-2026 A Web-Based SSI to Reduce Caregiver Distress and Accommodation in Financially Disadvantaged Parents of Youth with OCD: Project EMPOWER
International OCD Foundation
Mentor (Sung, PI)
This project aims to evaluate the efficacy, acceptability, and feasibility of Project EMPOWER—a web-based, scalable single-session intervention—for financially insecure families with youth struggling with OCD. Findings from this study will inform the development of a sustainable model for rapidly increasing access to evidence-based interventions for OCD, particularly for underserved families.

- 2025-2025 A Poisson mixture model for user behavior on obsessive-compulsive disorder forums
Harvard College Research Program
Mentor (Sun, PI)
This proposal aims to discover latent classes of r/OCD users based on posting patterns through finite univariate Poisson mixture modeling. It will also characterize and interpret latent classes through comparative natural language processing analyses of posts and comments by users belonging to each latent class.
- 2026-2027 Digital Detection of Substance-Use Risk in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
Zinberg Fellowship in Addiction Psychiatry Research
Mentor (Jonathan, PI)
The project has two aims: (1) to characterize real-world alcohol and cannabis use patterns and test whether substance use functions through self-medication or reinforcement mechanisms using 28 days of EMA data, and (2) to develop machine learning models using passive smartphone sensor data and demographic features to predict same-day substance use episodes. This work will provide the first naturalistic evidence on when, why, and under what circumstances individuals with BDD use substances, generating actionable insights that can be incorporated into cognitive-behavioral therapy protocols and clinical monitoring approaches. The project will also establish Dr. Jonathan as a leader in applying advanced digital methods to understand substance use risk in body dysmorphic disorder.

Current Unfunded Projects

- 2005-2015 Cerebral Metabolic Correlates of Treatment Response to Cognitive Behavioral Therapy in Body Dysmorphic Disorder
PI
The major goal of this study is to investigate the cerebral metabolic correlates of treatment response in BDD patients receiving cognitive behavioral therapy.
- 2010-2015 Outcomes of Cognitive Behavioral Therapy Interventions Provided by Unlicensed Professionals
Private Donor
PI
The purpose of this study is to examine the effectiveness and clinical care outcomes of cognitive behavioral therapy interventions at Massachusetts General Hospital.

Formally Supervised Trainees

1997-2003	Antje Bohne, Ph.D./Full Professor, Fachhochschule Duesseldorf Primary mentor for master's thesis, doctoral dissertation, two research grants, and many papers.
1997-2003	Thilo Deckersbach, Ph.D./Associate Professor in Psychology, MGH, Harvard Medical School, Director of Cognitive Neuroscience Research, Bipolar Research Program, MGH/Harvard Medical School, mentor for grants and papers. Clinical and research mentor during psychology internship and research mentor during postdoctoral fellowship at MGH, research mentor for two foundation research grants.
1997-2008	Ulrike Buhlmann, Ph.D./Full Professor, Westfälische Wilhelms-University Münster, Germany Research mentor for master's thesis, doctoral dissertation (Marburg University, Germany), and a research grant, and many papers. Primary mentor during fellowship at MGH.
1998-2000	Iris Engelhard, Ph.D./Professor, Utrecht University, The Netherlands Research mentor during practicum at MGH/Harvard Medical School.
1998-1999	Throstur Bjorgvinsson, Ph.D./Program Director of Behavioral Health Partial Hospital Program, McLean Hospital, Belmont, MA Clinical supervisor during post-doctoral fellowship at McLean.
2000-2001	Beth Gershuny, Ph.D./Associate Professor of Psychology, Bard College, Annandale-on-Hudson, NY

- Clinical and research mentor during psychology internship and post-doctoral fellowship at MGH.
- 2000-2001 Adam Radomsky, Ph.D./Professor, Concordia University, Canada
Primary mentor during psychology internship at MGH.
- 2000-2001 Bethany Teachman, Ph.D./Professor, University of Virginia, VA
Clinical and research mentor during psychology internship at MGH.
- 2001- Anne Chosak, Ph.D./Director of Psychological Services at the Center for OCD and Related Disorders (CORD), and Director of the CBT Program at MGH; Assistant Professor, Harvard Medical School
Primary clinical supervisor during fellowship at MGH.
- 2002-2004 Iftah Yovel, Ph.D./Professor, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel
Clinical and research supervisor during psychology internship and post-doctoral fellowship at MGH.
- 2003-2004 Jasper Smits, Ph.D./Professor of Psychology, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, TX
Clinical supervisor during internship at MGH.
- 2004-2014 Hannah Reese, Ph.D./Associate Professor of Psychology, Bowdoin College, Brunswick, ME
Clinical supervisor for graduate training (Department of Psychology, Harvard University) and dissertation committee member. Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentor for Tourette Syndrome Association research grant, and many papers.
- 2005-2011 Jeanne M. Fama, Ph.D./Clinical Assistant in Psychology (Psychiatry) at MGH, Instructor of Psychiatry at Harvard Medical School
Dissertation committee opponent for Dr. Fama's thesis "Neuropsychological and family-of-origin dysfunction in individuals undergoing cognitive therapy for obsessive-compulsive disorder." Mentor on IOCDF funded grant, "Critical Sessions and Sudden Gains with Cognitive Therapy in OCD: Identifying Mechanisms of Change"
- 2006-2010 Luana Marques, Ph.D./Associate Professor in Psychology, MGH, Harvard Medical School
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentored her on many papers.
- 2006- Jennifer Ragan, Ph.D./Associate Director of the Adult Intensive Cognitive Behavioral Treatment Program; Assistant Professor in psychology, MGH Outpatient Psychiatry Department/Harvard Medical School, Supervisor for clinical work and clinical research at MGH.
- 2006-2011 Elizabeth Didie, Ph.D./Assistant Professor of Research in the Department of Psychiatry and Human Behavior, Alpert Medical School, Brown University, Providence, RI
Co-mentor on K award "Interpersonal Psychotherapy for BDD" and clinical supervisor.
- 2007-2012 Jamie Feusner, MD./Professor, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, UCLA, CA
Consultant on K award "Body Dysmorphic Disorder: Clinical and neurobiological features." Research mentor, and mentor with respect to career advancement.
- 2007-2025 Jennifer Greenberg, PsyD/ Psychologist, private practice

- Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Research mentor for International Obsessive Compulsive Foundation grant.
- 2008-2010 Gregory Chasson, Ph.D./Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology, Towson University, Towson, MD
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH.
- 2008-2010 Kiara Timpano, Ph.D./Professor, Department of Psychology, University of Miami, Miami, Florida
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentored her on many papers.
- 2008-2014 Jeddiah Siev, Ph.D./Associate Professor in Psychology, Swarthmore College
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentor for International OCD Foundation research grant.
- 2009- Jeremiah Scharf, M.D., Ph.D./Neurologist, MGH
Co-mentor (with Dr. David Pauls) for K-award, Assistant Professor, HMS.
- 2009- Louisa Sylvia, Ph.D./Associate Professor, HMS; Director of Psychology at Bipolar Clinic and Research Program at MGH.
Co-mentor (with Dr. Andrew Nierenberg) for K-award.
- 2009- Dan Geller, M.D./Director, Pediatric OCD and Tic Disorder Program, MGH
Mentor on NIH R01 grant "D-Cycloserine Augmentation of CBT for Pediatric OCD." Professor, HMS.
- 2010- Jessica L. Rasmussen, Ph.D./Assistant in Psychology, MGH, Harvard Medical School
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH.
- 2011-2015 Amitai Abramovitch, Ph.D./Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology, Texas State University
Mentor on Rothschild Post Doctoral Fellowship. "Nicotine/Cigarette smoking in OCD: prevalence and impact on brain activity, neuropsychological performance and disorder specific symptomatology." Mentored him on many papers.
- 2011-2013 Andrea Hartmann, Ph.D./Professor, Department of Psychology, University of Konstanz, Germany
Mentor on Swiss National Science Foundation (SNSF) fellowship during postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. "Anorexia nervosa and body dysmorphic disorder - Two versions of the same syndrome? A comparative experimental investigation of psychopathological mechanisms and the effectiveness of new therapeutic strategies." Mentor on several papers.
- 2011-2015 Corinna Elliott, Ph.D./Psychologist, Ottawa Institute of Cognitive Behavioural Therapy
Mentor for clinical practice and research during internship and mentor on Fonds de la Recherche en Santé du Québec (FRSQ) Postdoctoral Fellowship
- 2011-2017 Aaron J. Blashill, Ph.D./Professor, San Diego State University
Co-mentor (with Dr. Steven Safren) for K-award "Body image and self-care in HIV-infected MSM"
- 2012-2014 Amanda Calkins, Ph.D./Assistant Professor, Psychology, MGH, Harvard Medical School
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentor for Livingston Fellowship research grant.

- 2012-2017 Noah Berman, Ph.D./Associate Professor, Department of Psychology Department, Holy Cross
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentor for research grants sponsored by the Livingston Fellowship, International OCD Foundation, Mind Brain Behavior Interfaculty Initiative, Kaplen Fellowship on Depression, and the Charles A. King Trust Postdoctoral Fellowship.
- 2012-2014 Johanna Thompson-Hollands, Ph.D./Intern, Psychology, VA Palo Alto Health Care System, California.
Dissertation committee member for "A Randomized Controlled Trial of a Brief Family Intervention to Reduce Accommodation in Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder."
- 2013-2020 Angela Fang, Ph.D./Associate Professor, Washington University, Seattle
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentor for research grants sponsored by the International OCD Foundation and Brain Behavior Interfaculty Initiative. Mentor for NIH funded K award "Brain Correlates of Self-Focused Processing as a Biomarker of Treatment Response"
- 2013-2016 Jennifer M. Park, Ph.D./Clinical Instructor at Stanford University School of Medicine, Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentor for Livingston Fellowship research grant.
- 2013-2024 Hilary Weingarden, Ph.D./Clinical Research Director, HabitAware
Co-Sponsor for F31 grant "Shame as a risk factor for severe and costly outcomes in Body Dysmorphic Disorder." Dissertation committee member. Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentor on NI K-award "Smartphone-based Digital Phenotyping to Detect High-Risk Affect States in Body Dysmorphic Disorder."
- 2016- Erica Greenberg, M.D./Director of the Pediatric Psychiatry OCD and Tic Disorders Program at MGH; Co-Director of the Tourette Association of America MGH Center of Excellence; Psychiatrist at MGH; Instructor at HMS Mentor for research grants sponsored by the President and Fellows at HMS, and Pilot Research Award for Attention Disorders supported by the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Elaine Schlosser Lewis Fund.
- 2016- Ryan Jacoby, Ph.D./Assistant Director, Center for OCD and Related Disorders (CORD); Assistant Professor, Harvard Medical School
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentor for research grants sponsored by the International OCD Foundation and the Charles A. King Trust Postdoctoral Fellowship. Mentor on NIH K-award "Targeting Attentional and Cognitive Control to Enhance the Transdiagnostic Treatment of Repetitive Negative Thinking."
- 2017-2020 Berta Summers, Ph.D./Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology, University of North Carolina at Wilmington
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentor for research grant sponsored by the International OCD Foundation.
- 2018-2019 Nicholas C. Jacobson, Ph.D./Assistant Professor in Biomedical Data Science and Psychiatry, Geisel School of Medicine at Dartmouth College
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship at MGH.

- 2020- Ivar Snorrason, Ph.D./Assistant Professor in Psychology, MGH, Harvard Medical School
Supervisor for clinical work and clinical research at MGH.
- 2020-2023 Joshua Curtiss, Ph.D./Assistant Professor, Applied Psychology Department, Northeastern University
Mentor for several papers during postdoctoral fellowship at MGH.
- 2020-2024 Emily Bernstein, Ph.D./Psychologist, Flagship Pioneering
Mentor on several papers during postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Supervisor for clinical work and clinical research at MGH.
- 2020- Adam Jaroszewski, Ph.D./Instructor at Harvard Medical School
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship and postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Mentor on NIH K-award “A Randomized Controlled Trial of A Smartphone Delivered Treatment for Suicidal Thoughts and Behavior.”
- 2021-2022 Nur Hani Zainal, Ph.D./Postdoctoral Research Associate at the Harvard Medical School
Mentor several papers during internship at MGH
- 2021- Brynn Huguenel, Ph.D./Staff Psychologist, Center for OCD and Related Disorders (CORD), Instructor at Harvard Medical School
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship. Supervisor for clinical work and clinical research at MGH.
- 2022- Sarah Coe-Odess, Ph.D./Staff Psychologist, Center for OCD and Related Disorders (CORD), Instructor at Harvard Medical School
Mentor for clinical practice and research during postdoctoral fellowship at MGH. Supervisor for clinical work and clinical research at MGH.
- 2022- Geneva Jonathan, Ph.D./Clinical and Research Fellow, MGH
Mentor on several papers during internship and post-doc. Mentor on research grant sponsored by MGH K12 Career Development Program in Substance Use and Addiction Medicine/National Institute of Drug Abuse, “Development and Testing of a Smartphone-based Intervention for Comorbid Substance Use and Depression.”
- 2023-2024 Shirley Wang, Ph.D./Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology, Yale University
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship.
- 2023-2024 Katherine Daniel, Ph.D./Assistant Professor, Center for Behavioral Health and Technology, University of Virginia
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship.
- 2024- Jenna Sung, MA/Clinical and Research Intern, MGH
Mentor for clinical practice and research during clinical internship.
- 2024- Anushka Patel, Ph.D./Research Staff, MGH
Supervisor for clinical research at MGH. Mentor on NIH K-award, “Designing and evaluating a Single-session Transdiagnostic intervention for Emotion Regulation with follow-up mHealth support for domestic violence survivors in India.”
- 2025- Nora Sun, undergraduate student, Harvard University
Mentor for Harvard College Research Program for her funded study,, “A Poisson mixture model for user behavior on obsessive-compulsive disorder forums.”

Dissertation Advisory Committee

- 2014 Johanna Thompson-Hollands, PhD, Boston University, MA

- Dissertation committee opponent for Dr. Thompson-Hollands's thesis "A randomized controlled trial of a brief family intervention to reduce accommodation in obsessive-compulsive disorder."
- 2014 Erik Andersson, PhD, Karolinska Institutet, Stockholm, Sweden
- Dissertation committee opponent for Dr. Andersson's thesis "Enhancing cognitive behavior therapy in the treatment of obsessive-compulsive disorder."
- 2016 Audun Havnen, Ph.D., University of Bergen, Norway
- Dissertation committee opponent for Dr. Havnen's thesis "Treatment of obsessive-compulsive disorder and the importance of assessing clinical effectiveness."
- 2017 Christopher La Lima, M.A, Hofstra University, NY
- Reader for "Therapist-Guided, Internet-Based Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for Body Dysmorphic Disorder – English Version (BDD-NET): A Feasibility Study"

Clinical Innovations

- 1999- Body Dysmorphic Disorder (BDD) is a relatively common, severe, and understudied body image disorder associated with a high suicide rate. I have developed and tested a new and promising cognitive behavioral treatment for BDD. In 1999, I published a paper on a group therapy version of this treatment, and in 2006, I published a book that describes this treatment in a self-help format. The book was awarded the Self-Help Seal of Merit by the Association for Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies, has sold 15,562 copies so far, and has been translated into German and Italian. A treatment manual describing this treatment (Wilhelm, Phillips & Steketee) was published in 2013 by Guilford Press, which has sold 7,940 copies so far. I regularly educate clinicians on the application of this new treatment and have given grand rounds, training workshops, and keynote addresses on this work nationally (e.g., at multiple behavior therapy and psychology meetings) and in various European countries.
- 2001- The first-line treatment for moderate to severe tics is antipsychotics, often associated with adverse effects. I have conducted several studies on behavioral treatments for tic disorders, and the magnitude of response of behavioral treatments in children is comparable to the results of controlled trials with antipsychotic medications. I gave my first presentation on behavior therapy for Tourette's Disorder at the World Congress of Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies in Vancouver, Canada, in 2001 and have given many presentations on tic disorders since. I have been the senior author of several books (a therapist guide, an adult workbook, and a child workbook), which together have sold 23,178 copies; an additional 257 copies have been sold in Korean translations and 900 sold in Norwegian translations. I am the first author of a paper that describes a large multisite study on behavior therapy for adults with Tourette Syndrome and was published in the Archives of General Psychiatry in 2012.
- 2006- I have invented and published a highly effective cognitive treatment for OCD, which does not involve the discomfort of prolonged exposure and response prevention commonly used in other empirically based psychotherapies. The book describing my treatment was published by New Harbinger Publications in 2006 and sold over 4,191 copies thus far. It has also been translated into Korean.
- 2008- I enhanced the speed of exposure-based OCD treatments by augmenting them with D-cycloserine, which reduces OCD related suffering faster than the standard behavioral treatment. My paper describing this work was published in the American Journal of Psychiatry in 2008 and was the topic of an editorial in the same journal. It was also described in a follow-up publication by my post-doctoral fellow Dr. Chasson in Behaviour Research and Therapy (with me as senior author). My work on OCD treatments has led to multiple invitations to present at meetings and grand rounds in Europe (e.g., keynote at the Bunnik symposium in the Netherlands, Grand Rounds at Amsterdam University, CBT World Congress meeting in Spain, British Association for Behavioral and Cognitive Psychotherapies meeting in Scotland, European Association of Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies conference in Croatia) as well as many national and regional invitations.

2017- To address the increasing rates of mental health concerns in the context of a global mental health service provider shortage, my recent work has extended my program of research to emphasize the development and testing of scalable digital approaches to treatment. For example, I have developed smartphone-based interventions for depression, OCD, and BDD. More recently, I am working on AI and other cutting-edge approaches to enhance the detection of high-risk behaviors and suicidality, as well as on machine learning algorithms to match patients with treatments and on generative AI to support more personalized and effective interventions.

Narrative Report

I am a clinical psychologist serving as the Chief of Psychology, Director of the Center for Digital Mental Health, and Director of the Center for Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD) and Related Disorders at MGH. I am also a Donovan-Chien Family Endowed Professor in Psychology at Harvard Medical School. Much of my work has focused on developing and testing cognitive behavioral treatment (CBT) approaches, including for Body Dysmorphic Disorder (BDD), Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD), and Tourette Syndrome/chronic tic disorders. To address the increasing rates of mental health concerns in the context of a global mental health service provider shortage, my recent work has extended this program of research to emphasize the development of scalable digital approaches to treatment. I have published over 375 papers and chapters, as well as nine books. My h-index is 96.

Primary Area: Innovation

My research focuses on the development, testing, and dissemination of treatments for OC-spectrum disorders. I was funded by the NIMH to develop a new cognitive treatment for OCD, and I have published a widely used treatment manual in this area. I have also applied memory enhancers (i.e., d-cycloserine) to exposure-based treatments for OCD, which has enhanced their efficacy. My treatment development research is informed by my research on neurocognition and de novo fear conditioning in OCD. I have also published widely on treatment outcomes, mechanisms, and the prevalence of BDD. I developed a new modular CBT for BDD and have written a self-help book and a treatment manual describing this treatment. I have received several NIMH grants to study treatments for BDD. In 2017, I started a collaboration with an industry collaborator and have since developed and tested cognitive behavioral mobile smartphone apps for body dysmorphic disorder, obsessive compulsive disorder, and depression. Currently, I am working on AI and other cutting-edge approaches to enhance the detection of high-risk behaviors and suicidality, machine learning algorithms to match patients with treatments, and generative AI to support more personalized and effective interventions. My work also focuses on treatment development and testing of behavioral interventions for tic disorders, and I was the scientific chair (and a PI) of an NIMH-funded multi-site study investigating behavior therapy for adults with Tourette's disorder and the MGH site PI for an NIMH grant exploring behavior therapy for children with tics.

I often participate in conference planning and served as the Scientific Program Chair for the 2010 World Congress of Cognitive and Behavioral Therapies. I am the Chair of the Scientific Advisory Board of the International OCD Foundation (IOCDF) and have chaired the IOCDF's grant review process for many years. Furthermore, I regularly participate in grant review panels and data safety and monitoring boards. I am also a member of the Scientific Council of the Anxiety Disorders Association of America and of the Behavioral Science Consortium of the Tourette Syndrome Association. I have been the PI (or site PI) of seven federally funded projects and have received donor, foundation, and industry funding. I also serve on several journal editorial boards and am frequently invited to speak about my research nationally and internationally. I have received many awards for my work, including the distinguished Aaron T. Beck Award from the Academy of Cognitive Therapy, the Peter K. Ranney Innovation Award from the World Medical Innovation Forum, and the 2023 NAMI Scientific Research Award. In addition, I have also been selected as the first recipient of the Donovan-Chien Family Professorship in the Field of Psychology at Harvard Medical School (HMS).

Teaching and Education

I have supervised the research and clinical work of pre-doctoral and doctoral staff within and outside of MGH. I am co-leading MGH's award-winning clinical psychology internship CBT track and organizing CBT training for MGH residents. My mentees have excelled at clinical care, published extensively, attained independent funding, and been promoted to leadership positions. They have also honored me with several mentorship awards. Furthermore, I often direct CME courses for clinicians outside of MGH. I have also created online courses through the Psychiatry Academy to train professionals via a CME course on CBT in general, CBT for OCD, and CBT for BDD.

Significant Supporting Activities

My supporting activities include clinical expertise and innovation, administration, and patient education.

Clinical Expertise and Innovation: See above.

Administration: I founded the BDD Clinic at MGH in 1998, and in 2007, I was named the Director of the Center for OCD and Related Disorders, which now incorporates the BDD clinic and several other programs. I was also the Director of the MGH CBT program from 2005 until 2014. Additionally, I serve on various committees, including the AMC MGH/BWH Psychiatry Department Oversight Leadership Committee Meeting (DOLC). I was promoted to Chief of Psychology in 2014. Since 2022, I have served as the Director of the Center for Digital Mental Health at MGH, which I founded as a Think Tank in 2019. I also hold, or have held, many national and international leadership positions in psychology and digital mental health, including past president of the Association for Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies (ABCT) and Scientific Advisory Board member for One Mind's PsyberGuide, Koa Health, Inc., Noom, Inc., and Jimini Health. I am also the Chair of the Scientific Advisory Board of the International OCD Foundation and a founding board member for the new Society for Digital Mental Health (SDMH).

Education of Patients and Service to the Community: To educate the general public about mental health issues, I have written self-help guides and educational pamphlets and developed websites. Furthermore, I often speak to lay audiences, have appeared on the Discovery Channel, and have been interviewed by Time magazine, CNN.com, and many other media outlets.
